

Replacing Keys

View previous topic :: View next topic

Author	Message
Silver Knot Joined: 02 Jun 2005 Posts: 1 Location: Mallorca	Posted: 16 Jul 2005 02:56 pm Post subject: Key Blanks  quote  edit  IP <hr/> Hello folks, Can anyone tell me where I can get a blank key to enable me to get a new key cut for my boat (washboard/companion-way) which is a 1996 38 CC. Locksmiths here in the UK seem not to have anything that remotely looks like the key I have. Yours hopefully Robin McDonald

Back to top

 profile  pm  email

goodeau Joined: 14 Mar 2005 Posts: 2 Location: Portsmouth	Posted: 14 Aug 2005 03:34 pm Post subject:  quote  edit  IP <hr/> I had the same problem. They are Swedish locks - I think - and not available in the UK. Opal can supply additional keys, but they are not cheap.
--	---

Back to top

 profile  pm  email

Display posts from previous: